Specific Grass, Clay or Hard Court shoes may be required for certain events. Shoes shall not cause physical or visible damage to a court.
GENERAL NOTES
	In all of the above cases, good common sense and judgement is required. If Chair Umpires are unsure of the identification size or positioning then it is safer to check with the Supervisor/Referee. In most cases the Supervisor/Referee will push for a player to change illegal attire, but occasionally leniency may be granted depending on the circumstances. This is the Supervisor/Referee's call. White clothing & footwear: Except for the warm-up period, players at Wimbledon must be dressed almost entirely in white.
GENERAL NOTES - FED CUP	Players and Captains shall be required AT ALL times to dress in compliance with Team Identification principles. This rule is mandatory for teams in the World Group, World Group 2 and Zone Group 1. The rule is optional for teams in the Zonal Group 2 & 3. However, any team in Group 2 or 3 that choses to adopt, or has previosuly been required to adopt, a Team Identification must follow the regulation in full. To comply, a Player and Captain shall display the Nation's name on the back of her/his shirt or s/he shall dress in National Colours. Team identification shall be in accordance with the official Fed Cup style guide. Members of doubles teams shall be dressed in substantially the same colours. In the case of Team Identification, this requirement will be satisfied as long as both members of the team display the Nation's name on the back of their shirts and dress in substantially the same colours or both members of the team dress in National colours.
